ST LOUIS UNION STOCK YARDS.

The Only Wholesala Yards in St.Louis Accessible by Rail and Water!

Every railroad entering St. Louis is directly tributary to these yards.

Texas shippers are informed that connection with these yards from the a Mountain & Southern railroad can be made without cost and with much less shrinkage than to any other. 3. These yards have the peculiar advantage of being located on the St. Louis side of the river, from which five hundred thousand people draw

Louis side of the river, from which it is their provision supply.

4. Every packing house in St. Louis has a regular buyer stationed here. Buyers of cattle, hogs and sheep, both for the home market and eastern shipment, are at all times represented.

5. For comfort and convenience these yards have no superior in the country. Two lines of street cars approach here. Hotel, telegraph offices and other conveniences for stockmen on the premises.

A Patal Fire.

New York, July 4.—A fatal and exceedingly obstinate fire broke out late Saturday afternoon in the middle of the dry goods district, and for a time threatened destruc-tion to much of the adjacent property. It was caused by an unaccountable explosion of fireworks stored in the cellar of the six story building, 343 Broadway, occupied by P. J. Kenry & Bro. Two lives were lost a fireman was overcome by heat and smoke and nearly $140,000 damage was done. As inquiry if all the occupants of the build-ing had escaped was made, and one by one they were accounted for until there were only two missing. The firemen, inch by inch, had fought back the flames to the third floor, when, nearing the stairway, they stumbted over the body of Albert Ells, a stock clerk in the Leonard street part of the store. Half an hour later in the first story the firemen found another corpss with its arms crossed before its eyes as though to shield the face from the flames.

One of the Brutal Murdorers of Jennie Bowman Falls Through the Teap. Louisville, July 1.—Albert Turner, one of the negro murderers of Jennie Bowman, was awang into eteruity from the gallows in the county jail at 6:32 o'cleek this merning. He was strangled to death, the body being cut down about twenty minutes after the trap was spring. Only fifty people were admitted to the yard, but about 2,000 were admitted to the yard, but about 2,000 assembled in the vicinity of the jail. The crime for which Turner was executed occurred on April 22 last. Turner and his companion were engaged in robbing the house when they were interrupted by the return of Jonne Bowman, the domestic. The pair brutally beat the girl, rendering her insensible and causing her death a few days after. Patterson, the other negro, has been convicted and sentenced, but havhas been convicted and sentenced, but hav-ing taken an appeal his execution is occas-
